

MUSCAT TRADITION 2011

The Michel Fonné vineyards account for a total of 15 hectares and are planted with all of the seven Alsatian wine grape varietals. In 1989 Michel returned in Alsace, after an apprenticeship in California, to assume management of the Barth René vineyards and winery from his retiring uncle, René Barth. More than 80% of the production are exported all over the world.

VINEYARD

It's unmistakably grapey, its dry character sets it apart from more southerly Muscats.

WINE

This Muscat is a white wine.

Giving the delicious impression of eating fresh grapes, it's a perfect aperitif or reception wine, goes well with asparagus.

TASTING

It should be stored on its side, at an ambient temperature.

Ageing : 5 to 7 years
